

Originally from Armenia, Colombia, and a Fine Arts graduate from the National University, XTNTA is a disruptive figure in the underground hardcore scene. Her technique, perfected at REC and through self-teaching, led her from her debut at Bogotrax 2022 to being recognized as the Best Hardcore DJ 2024 in the Concurso Clandestino. Her rise in Colombia has been linked to collectives such as Techsound and BTA Core, quickly projecting her career toward Europe.

XTNTA is the first Colombian artist to perform at some of the most important global hardcore events, including Harmony of Hardcore, Ghosttown, Ouwe Stijl is Botergeil, Mokum, Cenobite, and This is Madness in the Netherlands, as well as Brainfire and Deadtown in Germany.

In addition to her outstanding career, she maintains a strong international radio presence as a resident of Toxic Sickness since 2023 and as a guest artist on Hardcore Radio Rotterdam, RTDF Rave Radio in the United States, and Exode Records Radio (France), among others.

XTNTA has shared the stage with major hardcore names such as: Neophyte, Dione, Ruffneck, Distortion, Lenny Dee, Leviathan, Art of Fighters, JDA, Partyraiser, Giangy, Waxweazle, Paul Elstak, Panic, Vince, Viper, MD&A, Painbringer, Predator, Lenz, Re-Charge, Hellcreator, The Raver, The Resonant Squad, Manu Le Malin, Thrasher, Suicide Rage, Sonicore, Tripped, Kotzaak Klan, Nordcore, DJ The Producer, Rob Gee, Gabba Front Berlin, E de Cologne, Chosen Few, The Destroyer, and Dano, among others.

Her musical style is mainly influenced by genres such as: Early hardcore, psycore, artcore, earlynextgen, early terror, tribecore, darkcore, industrial hardcore, hardtek, terrorcore, frenchcore-hardcore, early frenchcore, and speedcore.

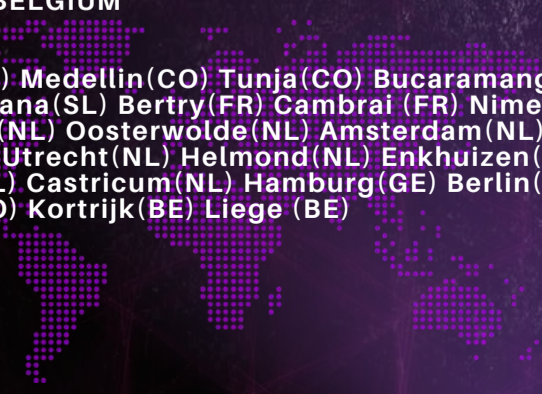

XTNTA offers a unique, aggressive, and immersive sound experience that captivates the audience and leaves a lasting impression.

She has already reached 7 countries and 24 cities, showcasing her talent and unique sound to diverse audiences around the world.
